Enjoy French Canada as we visit both Montreal and Quebec City in the Eastern portion of the country . . . and with the great meals that our tours are known for. Three nights will be in Montréal, the largest city in Canada's Québec Province, getting a feel for the region's rich history and its "joie de vivre" (a French phrase used to express "joy of life"), known for its wide variety of shopping and dining. We will also be visiting Quebec City for two nights, rounding out our time in this French-speaking Province before traveling along the banks of the St. Lawrence River and, one afternoon, taking a cruise followed by dinner.

Making this tour a "bit more special", our host hotel in Montreal is the centrally-located Le Nouvel. In Quebec City, that property, Chateau Laurier Hotel located close-by the historic Walled City. Many of the fortified walls and ramparts were constructed as far back as the early 1600s.

Montréal is set on an island in the Saint Lawrence River and named after Mount Royal, the large triple-peaked hill (aka small mountain) which is just west of the downtown city. We will tour Montréal with our Guide showing off a number of distinctive neighborhoods (specific routing may vary) with cobblestoned streets and the Gothic Revival Notre-Dame Basilica.

We'll be seeing many sites that generally include areas such as Chinatown, Dorchester Square, Old Montréal (founded in 1642 by French explorers), the Old Port, and Mount Royal Park. One of our dinners during this tour will be enjoyed at Montreal's Vieux-Port Steakhouse with its stone walls, wood floors and cozy fireplaces. This tour has been set up so that you have an evening to enjoy a dinner on your own where you may want to dine or, perhaps, to take a cab over to Casino du Montréal; located on Notre Dame Island in Jean-Drapeau Park in of the former Expo 67 pavilion buildings; it is the largest casino in Canada.

Equally as fascinating is Quebec City, just a couple of hours east of Montreal. We will be staying two nights in Québec City, also in the country's French-speaking province. This capital of Québec Province is the only remaining entirely-fortified city in North America. Founded by Samuel de Champlain, Québec was the first permanent European settlement in New France. A number of places you'll be seeing, and visiting many of them, date back to 1608, such as the Walled City and Place-Royale, with their narrow streets and stone buildings. Place-Royale has a French charm and is the location of the oldest stone church in North America. We will also be seeing the Plains of Abraham and the Citadel.

We will be visiting both the 274-foot Montmorency Falls and the Basilica of Ste-Anne-de-Beaupre and, possibly, a bread oven along the way. Enjoy the charm of Old Québec and experience, in the best way, dinner one evening in the historic walled area of the city in the towering Chateau Frontenac, named after the Governor of the colony of New France.

As we begin our trip westward, the motorcoach will be traveling through Cornwall and Brockville enroute to the Thousand Islands. We will be enjoying a dinner and boat cruise on the St. Lawrence River, capping off another wonderful tour to Québec Province. As we continue homeward, there will be a visit to the Duty-Free Shoppe and a special midday dinner awaits you along the way.
