

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

THE CHRISTMAS LIGHTS OF FREMONT . . . WITH “ROCK & AWE” SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2024

Departures, as applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, Middleburg Hts, No.Olmsted.

For many years, we have been taking passengers to the Christmas Celebration in Cambridge, south of Cleveland off I-77. Now, for those looking for something new, we travel west on I-80, about the same distance, to the Holiday Lights Celebration in Fremont that was introduced within the past year or two.

Like our Dickens Victorian Village Tour, our reps have added a number of interesting stops to “round out” the day. As in Cambridge, the “Rock and Awe” Light Show takes place at the Sandusky County Courthouse, not too long after the sun sets in the evening sky. Here the lights are synchronized to Holiday Music.

Following our afternoon arrival in Sandusky County, we’ve included a chance for each passenger to make an adorable Christmas ornament that they can take home with them. Afterwards, we will be guests at Spiegel Grove, the home of former President Rutherford B. Hayes and his family, all decorated for the Holidays. Enjoy this guided tour of our 19th President’s Home, hearing family stories and traditions, and enjoying a warm glass of Wassel while visiting this beautiful Victorian Home.

As always, dinner is included in this tour package. Merry Christmas!
