CLEVELAND PLAY HOUSE 2017 SHOWS

The Cleveland Play House, established in 1915, was America's first professional theater company and is also the country's oldest regional theater. The Play House, now located in the Allen Theater, produces a regular schedule of comedies, drama, and musicals throughout the season, including frequent world premieres. We would be pleased to include a luncheon or dinner. As of print date, the following shows are scheduled:

"How I Learned to Drive" (March 4-26) - Buckle up! It's going to be a bumpy ride. Lil' Bit takes us on a no-holds-barred trip back in time to her adolescence in the 1960's and her complicated relationship with an older man. A deeply compassionate look at how we are shaped by the people who hurt us.

"Between Riverside and Crazy" (April 1-23) - Ex-cop Walter "Pops" Washington is not one to let things go. Not the memory of his recently deceased wife, a law suit and definitely not the impressive rent-controlled apartment he shares with his parolee son and colorful surrogate family. But eviction notices and ultimatums are piling up and Pops is caught between losing his honor and losing his home.

"Freaky Friday" (April 15-May 14) - When an overworked mother and her teenage daughter magically swap bodies, they have just one-day to put things right again before mom's big wedding. This new musical comedy is based on the Mary Rodgers novel and hit Disney films and is a contemporary update of an American classic in which a mother and daughter really see what it is to be a family and experience first-hand each other's lives, if only for a day.
