

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

SPRING IN OHIO'S AMISH COUNTRY

SAT APRIL 15, 2017

Departure locations, if applicable, include Elyria, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

Perhaps you've been looking for something different, searching high and low. Ohio's Holmes County Amish Country, with its shops & flea market is where there is no need to travel to small, obscure shops to find that special antique or collectible. You'll find everything from homemade wood items to crafts, antiques and quilts, or whatever else may interest you . . . but that is only one of our six stops.

Dinner is a family-style meal at the Der Dutchman complex with bountiful servings of chicken & roast beef served at its Carlisle Village Inn; it's been pleasing townspeople and tourists for over three decades. Everyone enjoys a tempting piece of their homemade pie for dessert.

Many guests enjoy the rocking chairs on the front porch and listening to the clip-clop of horse-buggies passing through the Amish farming valley. We'll have time to visit the impressive Carlisle Gift House, the bakery, Coblenz Chocolates and, just before we head for home, an Amish meat market that offers their specialties such as bacon, steaks, smoked pork chops and other great items that you may want to take home with you. We've again included Sol's Exchange, Sol's Kit-N-Kaboodle brimming with furniture, candles, quilts, handmade dolls and even goose clothes and Sol's Palace. We've also expanded the tour this year to include a Christmas Shoppe with holiday home décor and holiday gifts at Schrock's Homestead.
