

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

MYSTERY TOUR # 707

FRI JULY 7, 2017

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, Elyria, North Olmsted, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights, Middleburg Heights.

This was another of our new destinations about two years ago and, due to the feedback, we have kept it almost identical for 2017. It is called Mystery Tour # 707 but, in spite of its name, there are no airliners involved. This is a unique combination of stops that are sure to bring back memories and, we can tell you, we anticipate dining in “Victorian style”. Our tour staff has included about four stops into this package along with, of course, a coffee break in the morning.

Some of our visits may take you back to the days when milk was 34 cents a gallon, a postage stamp could be purchased for 3 cents and gasoline was but 18 cents a gallon. On the other end, the minimum wage was just 30 cents an hour with the average annual salary approaching $1,900. We were also listening to radio shows like “Buck Rogers”. Why not join us on this mystery tour for something different this year if you haven’t done so already?

We’ve pre-scouted these destinations and would like to show them to you, making for a most enjoyable day . . . even if we haven’t told your driver yet on where you will be going.

$138 per person

We accept all major credit cards and checks, or stop into our office.
Tours can now be booked on-line, 24 hours a day with a credit card.
