

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

A MUSICAL IN SUGARCREEK . . . TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME . . .
("THE HOME GAME")

WED JULY 19, 2017

Departures, as applicable, from Elyria, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights, Akron North.

This tour travels to the Ohio Star Theater at Carlisle Village Inn in Sugarcreek, Ohio. Their brand-new and larger theater should be open by this show. We will be enjoying a family-style dinner brought out to our tables, enjoying the homemade goodness that Dutchman Hospitality has perfected over the years. Perhaps, afterwards, you may want to visit their bakery, brimming with freshly-made baked goods, or visit one of their nearby shops.

This year's performance is "The Home Game . . . a Musical". For as long as he can remember, this handsome young man has loved playing baseball. He dreams of playing in the major leagues, but with his father's expectations, he remains on the farm. All that changes when a sports travel scout happens into town and is most impressed with his fast ball and batting skills. He makes an offer that the young man cannot refuse. With the decision fully his, how will he choose between his father's wishes of an Amish life and his own deepest dreams. It has been described as "being filled with laughter and drama" and the production is "sure to hit it out of the park".
