

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

GO WEST AS WE CELEBRATE THE PAST THUR AUGUST 17, 2017
SAUDER VILLAGE AND THE MV SANDPIPER ON THE MAUMEE RIVER

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Elyria, Sandusky.

This tour was an “instant hit” with those who traveled with us last year, taking folks to places they’ve not previously visited.

We will be traveling westward through Ohio to the village of Archbold. Back in 1934 a local farm boy “with plenty of vision, determination and mechanical ability” founded a wood working company that has become a world-leader in ready-to-assemble furniture. He was also a forward-thinker, aware that the past paved the way to the future, and wanted to document those ancestors who settled in Northwest Ohio in the mid-1830’s. In the 1970’s he had dozens of structures relocated from various locations to create Sauder Village. Today that area has been expanded to include a 35-seat restaurant, the Doughbox Bakery, a 98-room country inn and a performance center, Founder’s Hall. We will be here about four hours to explore the homes and buildings, to visit the craft and retail shops and to dine in their popular restaurant.

We will be traveling about an hour east to board the MV Sandpiper for a two-hour cruise on the Maumee River, seeing various sights such as the new Veterans Glass City Skyway Bridge, the busy port, a shipyard, dry docks and/or stately homes, yacht clubs, marinas and wildlife.
