

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

WASHINGTON, NEW MUSEUM & SHOW

TUE-THUR SEPT 12-14, 2017

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, Elyria, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

Join Grace Roberts of 107.3, the WAVE FM, on this tour.

TUESDAY – We will have a leisurely departure with a coffee stop and lunch break along the way. Upon our arrival we anticipate checking into our hotel to “freshen up” before traveling over to the Columbia area for dinner and entertainment.

At the conclusion of our meal we will be enjoying the musical, “Dreamgirls”. We’ll be traveling back to the 1960’s, rhythm and blues blended with other styles of popular music creating a popular new American sound. “Dreamgirls” follows the rise and fall of “The Dreams”, a singing group who learn the reality of show “business”. This musical features the classic hits “And I Am Telling You I’m Not Going”, “I Am Changing” and “One Night Only”. (D with Show)

WEDNESDAY – Breakfast is included at the hotel before we depart with our guide for more local touring in the Nation’s Capital. We will be seeing many of the monuments, some from the comfort of our coach, the Vietnam Memorial, World War II, the Martin Luther King Memorial and other points of interest.

We have secured timed-tickets for the new Smithsonian addition, the National Museum of African American History & Culture.

This museum is a Smithsonian Institution museum that was established in 2003 and opened on September 24, 2016. It has almost 37,000 objects in its collection that are related to community, family, the arts, civil rights, religion, slavery and segregation. Alternate visits may include the African American Civil War Memorial. Located at the corner of Vermont Avenue, 10th St, and U Street NW, it commemorates the service of 209,145

African-American soldiers and sailors who fought for the Union in the American Civil War. This evening a special dinner that has been set up for you. (B, D)

THURSDAY – Breakfast is again included before we depart for Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington, and one of the nation’s most beloved historic sites. You will be getting a glimpse into 18th-century plantation life through beautiful gardens & grounds and museum exhibits, all honoring George Washington’s life and legacy.

After the death of his older half-brother, Lawrence, in 1752, George Washington took up residence at the house that his father, Augustine Washington, had built in 1735. Over the next five decades, Washington expanded the house to create an impressive 21-room mansion with vibrant wall colors, intricate architectural details, and elegant furnishings. We will be touring two floors of this restored home and the surrounding estate. Following this visit there will be a buffet meal as we travel homeward. (B, D)
