

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

BRANSON HOLIDAY TOUR

TUES-SUN, NOV 7-12, 2017

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Medina, Mansfield, Columbus.

This year our reps have worked to put together a great Branson Holiday package for your consideration with entertaining new shows. The dinners in Branson should please you as they will include The Uptown Café, McFarlain's Restaurant and the Outback Steak & Oyster Bar. We will be staying at the impressive Radisson Hotel. Of course, breakfast is included each morning in Branson. As our way of "giving to you", we've kept the price of this Holiday Tour the same for the third Christmas Season!

We will also be stopping at a restaurant along the way that claims to be "the only home of the thrown rolls" in Ozark, Missouri. Located here for 70 years, it's a most entertaining stop that you are sure to remember. Past customers have included Jay Leno, Jerry Van Dyke and Morgan Freeman, not to mention hundreds of Great Day! passengers. Their motto is "come hungry, leave full, and hopefully have a laugh or two". To our knowledge, very few, if any, competitive motorcoach tours include the number of tours, nor the quality of holiday tours, that you will find with Great Day! Tours.

Holiday Show #1: Clay Cooper's Country Express, as we experience the high energy, action, with music, singing and dancing!

Holiday Show #2: "All Hands On Deck" pays homage to our nation as it was in 1942; a time when all stood united - proud and patriotic . . . and the 'stars' weren't reality show celebrities, but bigger-than-life artists like Bob Hope who were entertaining those on the home front while touring abroad to prop up the spirits of the soldiers on the frontlines. You'll be delighted to hear sing-along favorites like By the Light of the Silvery Moon, Chattanooga Choo-Choo, Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree, Thanks for the Memory, Sentimental Journey, I'm in the Mood for Love, I've Got a Gal in Kalamazoo, and America the Beautiful.

Holiday Show #3: "New South Gospel" (all new), performing at Grand Country Music Hall, combines your favorite oldies, gospel music, and country tunes, taking you from the early roots of Southern gospel to the upbeat and happy hits of today. These songs range from the

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 6 AM and 8 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

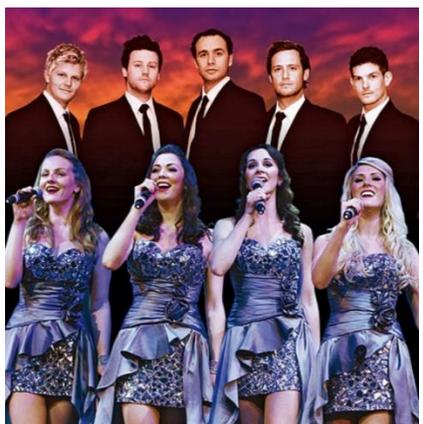

Jordanaires (Elvis's backup singers) to the talented Bill Gaither, as well as more contemporary artists like Rascal Flatts and the Eagles.

Holiday Show #4: The Oak Ridge Boys. Appearing at The Mansion Theater, they deliver their distinctive and dynamic four-part harmonies that earned the group dozens of country hits. We will typically be hearing songs such as "American Made" and their mega hit "Elvira".

Holiday Show #5: "Maxine's Christmas Carol", a musical comedy based on Hallmark Card's self-appointed "Queen of Crabbiness". "For nearly thirty years, Maxine has been one of the most popular characters when she began appearing on greeting cards, along with her dog, Floyd".

Holiday Show #6: "Conway Remembered" features an incredible performance by a performer whose uncanny tribute makes this show truly memorable as he performed the late Conway Twitty songs such as "Hello, Darlin'," "Tight Fittin' Jeans," and "It's Only Make Believe".

Holiday Show #7: And, rounding out our holiday selections, we've secured reserved seats for "Dublin's Irish Tenors and Celtic Ladies". Undoubtedly, you've seen their performances on television and this is your opportunity to see them, up close, as they showcase the talent of the Emerald Isle with "harmonies as smooth as velvet, sweetly lilting melodies, and songs that bring Ireland to mind, as well as popular English and American music." Of course, there will be songs such as "Danny Boy" and "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," as well as the pleasantly surprising, like "You'll Never Walk Alone." The Celtic Ladies will be performing everything from the aria from opera to music from Adele's "Rolling in the Deep", "You Raise Me Up," "Mr. Sandman," "Whisky in the Jar," "These Boots are Made for Walking," and "Scarborough Fair."
