

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

NASHVILLE AGLOW, OPRYLAND HOTEL WED NOV 29-SAT DEC 2, 2017

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Medina, Mansfield, Columbus, Grove City, Washington CH.

WEDNESDAY – Enjoying a leisurely trip southward – We will depart and travel south with a lunch stop at Cracker Barrel. We will be seeing the final leaves of fall and the beauty of the change-of-seasons. Mid-afternoon we will be greeted with a reception at our hotel in suburban Louisville while our luggage is taken to the room. There will be some time to “freshen up” before dinner at the Derby Dinner Playhouse, followed by the Pre-Show and then the holiday musical performance. We have reserved seats for “A Christmas Carol, the Musical”, the first of the shows included in this four-day tour package, compared to packages that may be offered by others who attempt to compact this destination into three days. Enjoy the season with festive songs and plenty of holiday spirit. (D, Show #1)

THURSDAY – Nashville at Opryland Hotel – After a full breakfast we will be checking into Nashville’s Opryland Hotel, the largest non-casino hotel in the country. You will have time to explore its blend of Colonial Williamsburg and Southern Plantation architectural styles as well as seeing the canal running through its atrium. Enjoy the Country Christmas theme at the Opryland Resort which is Nashville’s one-of-a-kind tradition with millions of dazzling lights. This afternoon we’ve included admissions to ICE, the signature holiday event at Opryland Hotel. This awe-inspiring attraction is carved from two million pounds of ice and is a beautiful rendering as we enter the holiday season.

Enjoy the Christmas decorations, the fantastic lighting displays and the holiday crafts being offered as you visit the various shops in the building.
