

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

SOUTHERN CHARM, CHARLESTON & SAVANNAH

MON APRIL 30 – SAT MAY 5, 2018

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, Elyria, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights, Akron, Canton, Dover, Cambridge.

Southern hospitality is a phrase used in American English to describe the stereotype of residents of the Southern United States as particularly warm, sweet, and welcoming to visitors to their homes, or to the South in general. This tour, newly modified for 2018, which includes 1 night in Charlotte, 1 night in Charleston, 2-nights in Savannah and 1 night in Mt Airy plus 10 meals, will hopefully reveal that southern allure.

En route on Monday we will stop at Tamarack in Beckley, West Virginia, and in Charlotte our accommodations are located directly across the street from Northlake Mall with an opportunity to stretch your legs and do a bit of shopping.

Charleston is the second largest city in South Carolina and originally was called Charles Towne, to honor Charles II of England, Scotland & Ireland. During late April / early May we should be enjoying their average high temperatures of 76 to 77 degrees. While we are in Charleston, where we will be staying one night, we'll be learning the history, seeing buildings and homes from the Antebellum & Postbellum eras. We will also be enjoying a wonderful Southern-style, 3-course dinner cruise with entertainment; a horse-drawn carriage tour of historic downtown; one of Charleston's most exquisite antebellum structures, the Joseph Manigault House; and a visit to Patriot's Point for a tour on the USS Yorktown.

Savannah's history goes back to 1733 when it became the first city in the 13th, and final, American colony called "Georgia", named after England's King George II. The beauty of the city was never as recognized as it was in 1862, when General Sherman entered the town after having burned the city of Atlanta, as well as everything else in his path, on the "March to the Sea". It is reported that he was so impressed with Savannah's beauty he could not destroy it. Two years later he sent a famous telegram to President Lincoln, offering the city as a "Christmas present". During our two-night stay we will have a trolley tour, fabulous meals, a haunted tour of Savannah, Captain Mike's Dolphin Tour and a visit to the Mercer Williams House Museum of "Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil" fame.

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 6 AM and 8 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

The last night we have upgraded our tour to stop at Old North State Winery, in Mt. Airy, where we will also be having a tour with wine tasting. Our special gourmet dinner will be served at their restaurant. You will need to pre-select your entree here, so when you make your reservation please indicate whether you will be having the Bacon Wrapped Pork Tenderloin, Salmon Filet or Herb Crusted Chicken.

On the way home on Saturday we have also included a traditional mid-day meal at “the only remaining original riverfront structure in Historic Marietta, Ohio” which was originally a dry goods store when constructed in 1826. There is so much to enjoy in this trip south and back that we hope you will find it charming.
