Tulip Festival

Our promise to you . . . As in the past, we know of no other tour offered that has so much included at Holland Tulip Time. This tour has entertaining shows and 5 meals. People don't get to attend this event every year so why not spend three days with us to enjoy many more of the events and venues that have made the Holland Tulip Festival such a long-running event.

THURSDAY – We will depart with a coffee break enroute and then continue our trip north into Michigan. Our first stop will be at Cornwell's Dinner Theatre in Marshall, Michigan, as we travel towards Holland. We will be enjoying the magic of live Broadway-style entertainment in the 175-seat theater. Today we will be enjoying the performance of a popular comedy, "The Savannah Sipping Society" after enjoying a bountiful luncheon. During the afternoon performance, you'll be seeing four unique Southern women, all needing to escape the sameness of their day-to-day routines, are drawn together by fate – and an impromptu "happy hour", which leads them to decide that it's high time to reclaim the enthusiasm for life they've lost through the years. Over the course of six months, filled with an occasional liquid refreshment, these middle-aged women successfully bond and find the confidence to jumpstart their new lives. Together, they discover lasting friendships and a renewed determination to live in the moment—and most importantly, realize it's never too late to make new old friends. So, let's raise our glasses to these strong Southern women and their fierce embrace of life . . . and say "Cheers!"

This evening we've continued the opportunity highlighted at the show with a relaxing cocktail party and a light supper to complement the large meal we had earlier today. Sit back, relax and enjoy the company of new friends. For those who may enjoy a "swim" this evening, and remembered to bring a swim suit, the hotel's indoor-outdoor pool will be open until 10 PM this evening.

Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

FRIDAY – A full day to be Dutch – An expansive breakfast buffet is included at the hotel before we depart for Windmill Island with its 100,000 tulips . . . it's a beauty to behold. Always impressive, DeZwaan, America's oldest Dutch windmill, stands tall over the gardens. DeZwaan is Dutch for "The Swan" or "Graceful Bird". It was first erected in Krommenie, Holland (near Amsterdam) in 1761 and brought here in April, 1965 and re-assembled. Other stops will include Dutch Village, Veldheer Tulip Gardens, DeKlomp Wooden Shoe & Delft Factory as well as the Queen's Inn for your luncheon. A dinner is included before we take our seats for the soon-to-be-announced show presented by the Holland Tulip Time Committee . . . and you will be there! While we do not know, at this time, the show, last year featured Vince Gill as a headliner. After the show we will return to the hotel.

(B, D, Show)

SATURDAY – After breakfast we depart with our Holland Tulip Guide who will take us, aboard the motorcoach, through the brightly-decorated eight-mile Tulip Lane, pointing out the brightest of arrangements and gardens. You will be learning the history of both the Netherlands and the city of Holland, Michigan, which was founded by Dutch immigrants in the late 1840's. We will be arriving back in town in time to purchase lunch before being seated in our reserved seats for the parade; this year we have purchased upgraded chairs for your seating comfort. First, of course, there will be the traditional street cleaning by townsfolk wearing traditional costumes and wooden shoes. Once the streets are cleaned, the Musiekparade begins. There will be marching bands, floats, giant helium balloons, horses, Dutch dancers and many other participants who have come to this town to join in the festivities. (B)
