

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

- MYSTERY TOUR # 1822
2018

TUES JULY 17,

Departures, as applicable, from Elyria, Independence, North Olmsted, Beachwood, Willoughby, Middleburg Heights.

This is one of our new mystery tours in 2017 and, due to the feedback on our other mystery tours, the destinations may have come as quite a pleasant surprise to those who have never visited the included attractions. This package is called Mystery Tour # 1822 and, we hope, this is not too much information to give away one of our destinations on the day of the tour. This is a unique, and rather inclusive, combination of stops that are sure to bring back memories and a bit of history and, we can tell you, this tour includes a late-afternoon dinner at a unique venue. The tour is essentially the same but with one of the destinations being “switched out” and the meal has been upgraded over last year.

This one-day tour package has something for everyone, including a wine tasting that you’re sure to enjoy . . . with about five delightful wines. The owners have studied wine and the lifestyle that goes with it, incorporating a number of “tips” that they have picked up while visiting quite a few other vineyards and wineries, where those wine makers share a mutual love of the industry.

Another of our visits includes an industry that dates back to 1835 and parts of it remain in operation even today. Its construction date made it the second of its type in the entire United States. We can tell you that, because of the closeness of its location, it is sometimes confused with a different town in the same state with a similar moniker. Now you know about “1835”, but we really can’t give away the reference to “1822”, can we?

While most of our one-day tours include a nice luncheon, we’ve set up a stop at a fast-food location so that you can purchase a snack, if you are so inclined. If we remember to tell them, your Driver and Tour Director will be taking you to a late-afternoon dinner at a special venue and a Emmy-type game program to “entertain”. Our Tour Staff hopes that you will trust our inclusions on the Mystery Tour since it is truly unrivaled and should be most enjoyable, for men and women. There is something for everyone.
