

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

A DAY OF ISLAND FUN & SUN

FRI AUGUST 10, 2018

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Elyria.

Join us for what we anticipate will be a sunny, warm day on South Bass Island, located in the western portion of Lake Erie. It is the southernmost of the three "Bass Islands" and the third largest of the Lake Erie Islands, with average highs in August of 79 degrees, amidst the peaceful breezes. While relatively small, it has an airfield, Perry's Monument, and the popular tour destination of Put-In-Bay which is known as the "Key West of Lake Erie".

Our coach will be taking us to Port Clinton, a city that has affectionately been nicknamed "the Walleye Capital of the World" where we will board the Jet Express that departs about 11 AM. The first of the four Jet Express vessels was put into service about 25 years ago and makes the 12-mile trip to Put-In-Bay in about a half-hour. The catamaran-style provides a smooth, fast ferry ride with plenty of first-level seating. They've kept their price to us and we've kept our 2017 price the same to you.

Upon our arrival at the downtown dock we will have time to walk over to one of the delightful restaurants at this summertime destination; did you know that this town is also called the "lobster bisque capital of Ohio", as well as offering tasty crab legs? Perhaps you prefer to purchase some fudge or a t-shirt, rent a bicycle or golf cart or take an Island tour train for some narrated sightseeing with "stop off privileges" at Heineman Winery & Crystal Cave and the Perry Victory & International Peace Memorial. Of course, there will be time to shop, browse or enjoy a beverage-of-choice at one of the popular establishments before we depart the Island about 4:15 PM for the return to the mainland.
