

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

NASHVILLE FALL TOUR

THUR-SUN SEPT 13 - 16, 2018

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Medina, Mansfield, Columbus, Grove City, Washington CH.

THURSDAY – Nashville – We will be traveling south along I-71 with a lunch stop in the Cincinnati area. Dinner is served this evening at the Santa Fe Cattle Company and, at 7 PM, we have reserved seats at the Texas Troubadour Theatre in Music Valley Village for the popular “Tribute to the King”. The legend lives on in this show which pays tribute to Elvis in Music City . . . the place that he recorded over 300 songs. According to Country Weekly Magazine, at this must-see show, “Elvis Rocks the House”. The tour should be most relaxing since we stay all three nights at the same hotel; 8 meals and 4 shows are included! (D, Show #1)

FRIDAY – Nashville Sightseeing – This morning we will be having breakfast at the hotel before we sit back on the coach for a narrated tour of Nashville, with a couple of stops this morning. Admissions have been included for the Ryman Auditorium as our guide leads us through this “living museum”; after all, the Ryman is “where it all started”. Lunch will be in Nashville’s downtown area and, at the time announced, we will be traveling over to our just-announced visit to the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum. Music and history lovers will enjoy the many exhibits found here, from the plaques dedicated to country music's finest, from Patsy Cline to Johnny Cash, and walk among artifacts like Jimmie Rodger's guitar and Elvis Presley's solid gold Cadillac limo.

Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum . . . now in this tour package for 2018

GREAT DAY! TOURS & CHARTER BUS SERVICE . . . (440) 526-5350 . . . (800) 362-4905

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 6 AM and 8 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

This evening we will be having dinner before sitting back to enjoy the show that at the Nashville Nightlife Theater, seeing why this has been voted Nashville's # 1 dinner show! (B, D, Show #2)

SATURDAY – The General Jackson Showboat – Today we will be enjoying breakfast at the hotel and then traveling over to the recently-expanded Country Music Hall of Fame & Museum, with its mission to preserve the history and traditions of country music. Today features a luncheon-cruise aboard the General Jackson Showboat, offering a lively luncheon show as we cruise Tennessee's Cumberland River. There are four decks and a beautiful Victorian theater. Then we've arranged for you to be a guest at Fontanel Mansion, the 33,000 square-foot mansion, once the beautiful log home of Barbara Mandrell. The mansion gives a glimpse of what it's like to live like country royalty. The home boasts 20 rooms, 13 bathrooms, 5 fireplaces, 2 kitchens, an indoor pool, and even an indoor shooting range. Rooms are filled with mementos of the Mandrell family plus memorabilia from other music stars.

This evening we will be enjoying a light supper with cocktails at the hotel before we travel to the world-famous Grand Ole Opry where we have reserved seats for the show.

The Opry began just five years after commercial radio was born in the United States . . . and the rest is history. (B, L, D, Shows #3, #4)

SUNDAY – Departing for home – But, first, breakfast is included at the hotel. We will then check out and travel northward.

A special mid-afternoon luncheon is included in the Newport, Kentucky, area. This is not "just another lunch", but rather you can select some a number of "Deutschland Favorites", after enjoying a Bavarian pretzel and a salad. Choose from Schnitzel wiener art, a wurstplate, Rahm spätzle and bourbon chicken. Dessert will be your choice of apfel strudel or Black Forest cake.

After lunch we will continue our trip homeward with a rest stop along the way. (B, L)

Please Note: Even though the package now includes the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, we have maintained the price about the same as last year!
