

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

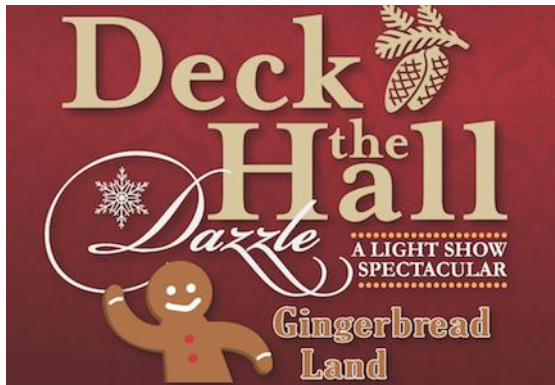

STAN HYWET & ITS LIGHT SHOW

THUR DEC 13, 2018

Departures, as applicable, from Medina, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

Here's another of our new holiday tours to put you into a good mood.

The day starts out with a luncheon, and some time as we look for a holiday gift for "someone special" at the Hartville Kitchen complex. You'll be able to select from the menu that offers the tasty dishes that they are known for such as ham, roast beef and fried chicken.

Then we travel the short distance to Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens to enjoy one of Ohio's largest and most spectacular holiday traditions, "Deck the Hall". The estate is illuminated inside and out with over a million lights. While the theme varies, somewhat, from year to year, groups last year saw the historic Manor House decorated and inspired by the theme of "Postcards from the Past". "Dazzle" was a fantastic outdoor light show choreographed to three songs and their "Gingerbread Land" was "dressed up" for the holiday season. The tropical Corbin Conservatory was beautifully decorated for Christmas with a 20-foot poinsettia tree and, during our visit, you can shop for unique holiday gifts in Molly's Shop.
