Tulip
Festival

Our promise to you . . . As in the past, we know of no other tour offered that has so much included at Holland Tulip Time. This tour has entertaining shows and 5 meals. People don't get to attend this event every year so why not spend three days with us to enjoy many more of the events and venues that have made the Holland Tulip Festival such a long-running event at virtually the same price, third year.

THURSDAY – We will depart with a coffee break enroute and then continue our trip north into Michigan. Our first stop will be at Cornwell's Dinner Theatre in Marshall, Michigan, as we travel towards Holland. We will be enjoying the magic of live Broadway-style entertainment in the 175-seat theater. Today we will be enjoying the performance of "Midlife Crisis, The Musical" after enjoying a bountiful luncheon. With a balanced look at the "joys" of growing older, "Midlife" strikes a chord with anyone regardless of age. A series of scenes and sketches poke fun at the frustrations of mammograms, love handles, weekend warriors and proctology exams. The cleverly crafted songs and humor celebrate forgetfulness, reading glasses and menopause, but also touch on the sentimental wisdom that the later years afford us.

This evening we've included a relaxing cocktail party and a light supper to complement the large meal we had earlier today. Sit back, relax and enjoy the company of new friends. For those who may enjoy a "swim" this evening, and remembered to bring a swim suit, the hotel's indoor-outdoor pool will be open until 10 PM this evening. (L, D, Show)

FRIDAY – Today you will see why our packages are "upgraded" over others you may have seen offered. We'll have all day to be Dutch, starting with an expansive breakfast buffet at the hotel before we depart for Windmill Island with its 100,000 tulips . . . it's a beauty to behold. Always impressive, DeZwaan, America's oldest Dutch windmill, stands tall over the gardens. "DeZwaan" is Dutch for "The Swan" or "Graceful Bird". It was first erected in Krommenie, Holland (near Amsterdam) in 1761 and brought here in April, 1965 and re-assembled. Other stops will include Dutch Village, Veldheer Tulip Gardens, DeKlomp Wooden Shoe & Delft Factory as well as the Queen's Inn for your luncheon. A dinner is included before we take our seats for the fabulous Headliner Show . . . something that should be most enjoyable and memorable. The "Headliner" is Jay Leno, an entertainer with a reputation of being

"one of the hardest-working men in show business", and we have some great tickets (included and having been "snapped up" by our tour department at $70 each, to show you how much we care for the quality of our tours). (B, D, Show)

SATURDAY – After breakfast we depart with our Holland Tulip Guide who will take us, aboard the motorcoach, through the brightly-decorated eight-mile Tulip Lane, pointing out the brightest of arrangements and gardens. You will be learning the history of both the Netherlands and the city of Holland, Michigan, which was founded by Dutch immigrants in the late 1840's. We will be arriving back in town in time to purchase lunch before being seated in our reserved seats for the parade; this year we have again purchased "upgraded chairs" for your comfort. While seated, this will be the third show, albeit shorter than the other performances; we will be viewing the fascinating street cleaning by townsfolk wearing traditional costumes and wooden shoes. Once the streets are cleaned, the Musiekparade begins. There will be marching bands, floats, giant helium balloons, horses, Dutch dancers and many other participants who have come to this town to join in the festivities. (B, Parade/Show)
