

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

BEAUTIFUL GARDENS & ESTATES TO PUMPKIN SEEDS & BLUEBERRY PATCHES WED JUNE 19, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Medina, Mansfield.

Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens has a rich history that dates back to 1852 when 88 acres was purchased as the site of the first Franklin County Fair. Since then a grand Victorian-style glass greenhouse was constructed with carriage paths, a lake and boathouse, quickly developing a reputation for horticultural excellence with the display of rare and unusual plants. It will be a great way to start our day.

Franklin Park Conservatory and Botanical Gardens presents multi-faceted, art-influenced and nature-based exhibitions throughout the year; all are designed by the staff. Special, temporary exhibitions by national and international artists are also presented each year.

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 8 AM and 9:30 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 10 PM to 11 PM, although this may vary.

During this tour we will also be visiting both the John F. Wolfe Palm House and the connecting Dorothy M. Davis Showhouse, the oldest portions of the Conservatory and Botanical Gardens.

Before our next visit we will be enjoying a hearty luncheon before an afternoon with visits to the Blueberry Patch, the state's premier grower of this very popular product. Another brief stop will be at the Pumpkin Seed General Store before our arrival at Kingwood Center & Gardens, known for developing and displaying exemplary gardens on the former estate of Charles Kelley King. This historic estate and garden features landscaped gardens, greenhouses that surround the mansion.
