

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

GERMAN VILLAGE HAS STORIES TO TELL

TUES AUG 13, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Medina, Mansfield.

Located just eight blocks from the State Capitol in Downtown Columbus, the German Village historic district traces its roots back to 1814 in the “South End” of the city. At that time, it was originally referred to as “die alte sud ende”. German descendants, at one time, comprised as much as a third of the entire population of the city of Columbus.

As the immigrants arrived they immediately felt at home since German was spoken in the stores, schools and churches. After work, most of the workers relaxed in “bier gartens” and most belonged to gymnastic and singing societies.

During our combination driving-walking tour of this several-block area, you will be learning, from our guide, some of the stories to be discovered as we see the brick streets, wrought-iron fences and brick streets and learning how a small group of urban pioneers triggered the 20th-century restoration of this historic district.

Willkommen! In keeping with the theme of this tour, we will be dining in the heart of German Village at Schmidt’s Sausage Haus. Here, we will enjoy a bountiful buffet of German specialities, including dessert . . . at the same price as last year.

Our staff has, once again, included a visit to a candy company (with samples, of course, that your Tour Director will be purchasing) and a visit to the “flag lady” where she offers almost every type of flag, including ones that she calls the “Betsy Ross” and the “Spirit of ‘76” flags. There are even custom-made flags available here, that’s why we’ve included this unique stop . . . so that we can say we are proud to be Americans!
