

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

HISTORIC GETTYSBURG, MOST INCLUSIVE TUE-THUR AUG 20-22, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, Elyria, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

This tour includes locations that would just not fit into shorter packages since this town has had such an impact on our country. We'll travel eastward into the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania where we've brought back some truly historic folks from the past to join you at our luncheons.

TUESDAY – We will be traveling directly to the Shriver House, a meticulously-restored 1860 home to “learn the other side of the story”. You may have studied in school about what happened on the battlefield . . . but do you know what happened to the civilians in town? We will be hearing the story of George and Hettie and their two children to appreciate what life was before, during and after the Civil War.

Dinner will be in a historic restaurant and tavern, established in 1776; it is the oldest standing structure in Gettysburg with its native stone walls, seven fireplaces, and hand-carved woodwork. General and Mrs. Lee will be joining us to provide some insight into the history of the area and war. This will be one of six meals included. (D)

WEDNESDAY – We will be visiting the Gettysburg National Military Park Visitors Center to see the movie and Cyclorama, “laying the groundwork” for our other visits, learning about the Battle of Gettysburg, the turning point of the Civil War. Here the Union victory ended General Robert E. Lee’s second and most ambitious invasion of the North. It has been referred to as the “High Water Mark of the Rebellion” and was the inspiration of President Abraham Lincoln’s immortal “Gettysburg Address”.

This comprehensive tour has us visiting the home and farm of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower. We will be dining at a quaint country retreat and, for something totally unique, another “special guest” will be joining us. This afternoon we will be visiting a local winery and a museum honoring Abraham Lincoln. Come aboard the Lincoln Train to ride with Abraham Lincoln on a journey through American history. (B, L, D)

GREAT DAY! TOURS & CHARTER BUS SERVICE . . . (440) 526-5350 . . . (800) 362-4905

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 6 AM and 8 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

THURSDAY – During our third day we’ve included what we consider one of the most informative parts of any of our tours to Gettysburg, the narrated Battlefield Tour by a licensed Battlefield Guide. Known for three dramatic days in July of 1863, the fields that surrounded the town have been turned into a 6,000-acre Civil War memorial park, dedicated to the soldiers who fought here.

Lunch should be delightful at the Mason-Dixon Distillery, enjoying one of their menu specials, “Hot Brown” served with a secret blend Rum Punch. What a great way to end such a comprehensive tour into the country’s historic past.

Enroute home, we will be visiting one of the Gettysburg area’s most unique attractions, The Candy Emporium. You’ll be a kid in a candy store with more than 700 varieties of your favorites from yesteryear through today. This shop even offers 70 flavors of creamy homemade fudge and fresh-roasted jumbo peanuts to take home with you. For something totally unique, there will be time to visit Mr. Ed’s Elephant Museum; it features more than 12,000 pachyderm figurines, circus souvenirs, political paraphernalia and toys. (B, L)
