

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

DIVAS OF THE 70s, PERFORMING IN OHIO THIS YEAR! WED SEP 11, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Medina, Mansfield.

As you know, last year's show, ABBA, was a sold-out affair . . . with a stand-by list of those who "waited too long". By that time, all tickets had been sold out and no more were available once the bus was filled. For that reason, we are recommending booking early.

It is most likely that this luncheon-show, Diva's of the 70s, will do the same given the tribute group of four artists, performing for our passengers at their only Columbus performance:

- Barbra Streisand with songs like "The Way We Were" and "My Heart Belongs to Me".
- Donna Summer and her hits including "Love to Love You Baby", "Hot Stuff", "Bad Girls" and "Last Dance".
- Tina Turner and hits including "Proud Mary", "I Want to Take You Higher", "What's Love Got to Do With It" and "Private Dancer".
- Cher, with so many hits, including "Gypsies, Tramps & Thieves" and "Half Breed".

We have also planned several other stops in the Columbus and Ashland area. Before we hear and see the music from these "Divas", we will be visiting a nationally-known company that is dedicated to providing people with the finest American-made products. This "store with the spirit" began with one person selling USA flags from the trunk of an automobile in Libertyville, Illinois. It's a family business that has continued to grow as they offer US flags, military flags and custom-manufactured flags, many of which you can view or purchase.

We will also be stopping enroute home (except for those boarding in Mansfield) in the rural Ashland community at a unique "country shop area" whose encouragement to you is to "eat more cheese" . . . but that's not all. You'll be able to browse and make purchases (since our next stop is "home") from their "home-smoked meats, specialty cheeses, Amish country jams, jellies and pickles, local honey and maple syrup and their homemade chocolates and candies that can happily fill your every craving with pure delight and deliciousness!"

$159 per person
