

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

THE LIFE OF THE SUNSHINE BOYS

WED-THU OCT 16-17, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, Middleburg Heights, North Olmsted, Elyria, Sandusky.

While this title references the live performance, "The Sunshine Boys", this tour has a relaxed pace and one which we think you'll truly enjoy. Lewis and Clark were once a successful vaudevillian comedy duo known as "The Sunshine Boys". After a 43-year run, they no longer spoke to each other. Willie Clark, now an old man struggling with memory loss, reluctantly accepts an offer from a talent agent, to reunite with Al Lewis for one more show, which turns out to be one of Neil Simon's most beloved shows where they try to recapture their glory days and, perhaps, rebuild their troubled friendship.

During this two-day travel experience to Northern Indiana, we will be visiting a former car manufacturer's showroom. It's not "just another display area, but rather where the stately Duesenbergs, Auburns and Cords were introduced to the dealer associates each time a new model came out . . . and our docents will be telling you about the interesting stories associated with these elegant vehicles that we are seeing. Three meals are included in this package, from dinner on arrival (in a historic century-old restaurant before the show), a continental breakfast in the Geranium Room of the Inn the next morning and, at lunch time on Thursday, before we depart for home.

We'll be touring the area and going full-circle transportation-wise, originally seeing beautiful motorcars of an age when you could tell them apart, later taking a wagon farm tour and having some time to visit shops in the area. Enroute home we just might be stopping for an ice cream cone at someplace most unusual, a Camel Dairy, no less!
