

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

NASHVILLE AGLOW, OPRYLAND HOTEL WED-SAT DEC 4-7, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Medina, Mansfield, Columbus, Grove City, Washington CH.

WEDNESDAY – Enjoying a leisurely trip southward – We will depart and travel south with a lunch stop at Cracker Barrel. We will be seeing the final leaves of fall and the beauty of the change-of-seasons. Mid-afternoon we will be greeted with a reception at the Radisson Hotel in suburban Louisville while our luggage is taken to the room. There will be some time to “freshen up” before dinner at the Derby Dinner Playhouse, followed by the Pre-Show and then the live holiday performance of “Elf, the Musical”. First appearing on Broadway in 2010, and continuing to tour the U.S., this musical is popular every holiday season as a young orphan child mistakenly crawls into Santa’s bag of gifts and is transported back to the North Pole. The original movie starred Will Ferrell as you may recall.

(D, Show #1)

THURSDAY – Nashville at Opryland Hotel – After a full breakfast we will be checking into Nashville’s Opryland Hotel, the largest non-casino hotel in the country. You will have time to explore its blend of Colonial Williamsburg and Southern Plantation architectural styles as well as seeing the canal running through its atrium. Enjoy the Country Christmas theme at the Opryland Resort which is Nashville’s one-of-a-kind tradition with millions of dazzling lights. This afternoon we’ve included admissions to ICE, the signature holiday event at Opryland Hotel. This awe-inspiring attraction is carved from two million pounds of ice and is a beautiful rendering as we enter the holiday season.

All tour details are anticipated at the time that the Scheduled Tour Brochure was prepared and specific stops and/or other inclusions are subject to change or elimination without notice. Tours typically depart between 6 AM and 8 AM with the exact time shown on the itinerary you will receive approximately one to two weeks prior to the tour departure. Most tours return about 8 PM to 10 PM, although this may vary.

We have reservations for the Opryland Hotel Country Christmas Dinner-Show. Trace Adkins has been just been announced as the feature entertainer for the 2019 show. (B, D, Show #2)

FRIDAY – The holiday fun continues – This morning breakfast will be on your own, possibly in the Garden area along the indoor canal that is the centerpiece of the hotel complex. Enjoy the Christmas decorations, the fantastic lighting displays and the holiday crafts being offered as you visit the various shops in the building. At lunchtime, we will board the General Jackson Showboat, enjoying the cruise, our luncheon and the Country Christmas Show. It's both lively and memorable.

We have again upgraded the inclusions to include the Delta Boat Ride inside the hotel. This evening, we will be enjoying the new Broadway-style production at the Opry House. Last year's group saw "Cirque Dreams Holidayze" with 50 performers, grand music and a number of signature favorites. (L, Shows #3, #4)

SATURDAY – Departing for home – Sadly, all good things must come to an end and we depart with a mid-morning coffee break. A luncheon is included in Newport-on-the-Levee area as we travel homeward. After a hearty mid-afternoon dinner, we will continue our trip homeward with a rest stop enroute . . . and a lot of warm memories to prepare us for the upcoming holidays. (D)

Important Note: We do recommend booking early since, as the date gets closer, Opryland Hotel pulls back all unsold rooms.
