

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

WILLIAMSBURG CHRISTMAS, FIRST CLASS FRI-MON DEC 6-9, 2019

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

FRIDAY – Historic Staunton, Virginia – First settled in 1732, Staunton served for a number of years as the regional capital for the Northwest Territory. When the legislators fled Richmond and Charlottesville during the American Revolution, it became the capital of Virginia for a brief period. Originally named Beverley's Mill Place, it was renamed to honor Lady Rebecca Staunton, the wife of Royal Lieutenant Sir William Gooch. Dinner awaits us this evening. (D)

SATURDAY – Monticello and Richmond – We will be arriving at the former residence of our third president, Thomas Jefferson. Built from his own design on land that he, at the age of 26, had inherited from his father, was designed in a neoclassical design. It includes many of the same design elements that were popular in late-1800's Europe.

Following our tour, we will travel into Richmond, the capital of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Our reps are pleased to be taking you to a historic place that embodies the spirit of Southern hospitality and charm at the Jefferson Hotel. Opened in 1895, this grand hotel was designed in the beaux arts style with features refined over the past century. Cocktails await us today. (B, L, C)

SUNDAY – Colonial Williamsburg's Holiday Season & the Grand Illumination – We continue to “step back in time” at Colonial Williamsburg, experiencing the Revolutionary City dressed in timeless natural decorations or, perhaps, take in a live auction on the Market House stage. You've been included for the Holiday Reception at the Williamsburg Lodge. At 5 PM the candles are lit in the public buildings and homes, taking you back in time. We will be celebrating the season with a grand feast of holiday favorites and a variety of traditional entertainment. It's a great way to celebrate the holiday season! (B, D)
