

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

MYSTERY TOUR “NG”

THUR OCT 8, 2020

Departures, as applicable, from Willoughby, Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Brunswick, Medina, Mansfield.

We are bringing back this one-day Mystery Tour that we introduced last year, after the “glowing reports”. Passengers indicated they would have never thought about some of the places that are included and were enjoyed so much.

There are so many “clues” we could give you, but decided against it since they would only be there to throw you off as to our destination, like the old postcard below. This is not a shopping tour, but you will be seeing some interesting shops around lunch time.

We will be visiting an area first surveyed in 1797 and set aside for those who served in the Revolutionary War. Land was acquired, through an Act of Congress in 1796, in 4,000-acre parcels. It was first settled by the Welsh in the early 19th Century and then by settlers traveling west from Massachusetts and Connecticut. We will be taking in the beauty, as our coach travels through acres of gardens and natural areas during one of our visits.

There is one stop we will be mentioning since we will be seeing beautiful glassware, with some of the glassware having been hand-wrought, dating back to 1896.

Who knows, your Tour Director may be planning a visit to a popular ice cream company for a brief tour and “spending some of the boss’s money” on an ice cream treat.

PS: This old postcard has little to do with the tour, but may be shown in our effort to confuse you.
