

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

FALL IN GETTYSBURG, W/ BATTLEFIELD TOUR SAT-SUN OCT 17-18, 2020

Departures, as applicable, from North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

This tour, offered annually, will have you traveling to Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, the location of the major battle of the Civil War. Putting the activities of those days into perspective, we have reservations for the NPS's "New Birth of Freedom", narrated by Morgan Freeman and then the Gettysburg Cyclorama with the dramatic 1884 painting "Pickett's Charge". Again, the tour dates can accommodate most everyone, including those who work during the week.

Our evening dinner will be at a historic inn, one of the oldest continuous running inns in the country, operating since 1757, where we will be enjoying the welcoming service of yesteryear. Menu selections will be requested as the departure date approaches.

With all that has happened in this historic town, ghosts are still having an impact on this area which saw the death of so many men in the 1800s. As a result, Gettysburg has been called "the most haunted town in America". We will be exploring these ghosts during the evening with our guide. These experiences have been chronicled in a number of television shows and continues as a most-interesting and dramatic experience.

After a hot buffet breakfast we will board the coach with our Battlefield guide to tour the area where the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia, with 70,000 men under the command of General Robert E. Lee and 94,000 men under the command of Major General George G. Meade, fought for three days during July of 1863.

A "bit of history" continues as we travel home, stopping for dinner at a historic restaurant in the Laurel Highlands at an Inn where gentlemen customers originally gathered to "have tea" with their friends during Prohibition at what had been called Oakhurst Tea Room.
