

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

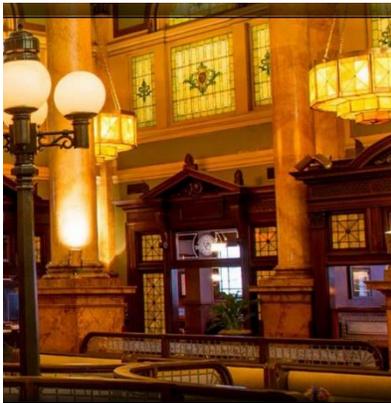

HOLIDAY LIGHTS IN PITTSBURGH

WED DEC 2, 2020

Departures, as applicable, from North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Boston Heights.

For years, our passengers have enjoyed the tours that include Pittsburgh and, this year, as our “Holiday Gift” to you, we’ve kept the price the same. As those of you who have “entrusted your travels” to Great Day! Tours know, our Pittsburgh tours typically dine at one of the greatest restaurants in the Three-Rivers area, with the most beautiful ambience, the Grand Concourse at Station Square. Situated along the river and overlooking the colorful skyline, it is a true testament of grandeur and elegant dining. With a cathedral stained-glass vaulted ceiling and marble columns, you will be quickly transported to the glamorous side of life.

Last year they continued their gingerbread-theme and had a holiday train running through the restaurant in addition to the normal holiday decorations that are sure to “warm up any holiday dining experience”. We will be enjoying Pittsburgh’s lights from several vantage points, seeing the lighted trees in the Golden Triangle, PPG Place & Wintergarden with life-sized Santas on display as well as gingerbread houses, the iconic 65-foot Christmas tree reminiscent of the one that was

Phipps Conservatory & Botanical Gardens

Gingerbread houses and trains for the holidays

We will also be visiting Phipps Conservatory & Botanical Gardens; set in Schenley Park, it's a complex of buildings designated Historic Landmarks, with Victorian architecture. You'll be enjoying the beauty of the Winter Flower Show & Light Garden as well as seeing the Garden Railroad in the building that even has small sailing ships built into the display.
