HOLIDAY CANDLELIGHTING IN A HISTORIC CANAL TOWN

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2024

Departures, as applicable, from Parma/Cleve.West, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Macedonia. (Note: No. Olmsted is not a pickup as it was a typo in the book).

Christmas has, for years, held a place in the heart of the residents of the Canal Town originally known as Roscoe. Since that region has been restored as a showplace for visitors, old traditions remain deeply imbedded in the hearts of those who have worked so diligently to maintain the history and unique flavor of this town in the Appalachian region, where the Ohio and Erie Canals were the primary form of moving goods, originally laid out in 1816 by a local merchant, James Calder.

Today we will be traveling to the Coshocton area to enjoy these traditions, topped off by the annual Christmas Candlelighting Celebration. But, before late afternoon-early evening arrives, we will be having a meal at Steak 'n Stein, a restaurant in the Old Warehouse. During the afternoon, guests may enjoy a visit with Santa, hear strolling carolers, enjoy hot-mulled cider and cookies, roasted chestnuts and other holiday festivities. At 6 PM Roscoe Village begins celebrating the holiday season at the main stage with the Christmas Candlelighting Ceremony. Experience the Village holiday tradition of the Christmas tree lighting and the joy of an old fashion tradition. Enjoy the living history exhibits and learning about different ethnic holiday traditions once practiced by village residents.
