The overall activity level of this tour is a level 3. This means you're an on-the-go traveler. You don't want to miss a thing, so walking and standing for longer periods of time (2-3 hours) isn't a big deal. A moderately paced two-and-a-half-hour walking tour, covering several miles, hills, and uneven surfaces, is no problem for you. Walking four miles over the course of a day is very doable, as is climbing into and out of various modes of transportation (tuk-tuk, cable car, zodiac, etc.). You can climb three flights of stairs easily and handle altitudes between 6,000 and 9,000 feet. Expect some longer days with early mornings or late nights balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. This level is not a fit for travelers who require mobility assistance devices.

Travel with an average of 37 people (maximum of 44).

The walking tour in London will be a little over 3 hours and requires standing up to 20 minutes at various sites.

Some of the most unique sightseeing can mean accessing locations that restrict motor coaches, especially in the historic areas of Paris, such as Montmartre and Versailles, which require the ability to walk up and down hills and on cobblestoned streets and stairs.

If you choose to participate in the Choice on Tour to Montmartre, please note that you will need to walk 1.2 miles on cobblestones and feel comfortable standing while riding the Parisian subway.

If you require a walker or wheelchair, or have difficulty walking, you may not be able to access some of the areas on this tour and may want to

Experience It! Dinner at the Eiffel Tower

It's like a scene from a movie: the lights of Paris glitter beneath you as you dine inside one of the world's most iconic landmarks – the Eiffel Tower. Proudly rising up on the Champ de Mars, the historic Eiffel Tower is actually the tallest structure in Paris (and the most visited paid monument in the world). Soak in the exclusive experience as you sample savory French cuisine from one of the world's most noteworthy gastronomical cities. Enjoy an unforgettable meal in a contemporary setting, providing a wonderful contrast to the historical landmark the restaurant resides in. Stand inside history, relish fine French cuisine, and take in the most incredible views in the "City of Light."
