You'll be discovering a lot of great things are happening as you immerse yourself in Ohio's history and the relaxing Amish culture, the beautiful scenery and the great food. And what better way can we do this than at the beautiful Berlin Grande Hotel, centrally located in the heart of the activities! This year, the first of the two live productions we will be seeing is the just-announced change, the Musical, "Josiah for President", at the Ohio Star Theater.

"When former Congressman Mark Stedman throws in the towel on his presidential campaign, his only choice is to return to his home state and decide how to spend the rest of his life ... until he meets Josiah Stoltzfus, an Amish farmer from Pennsylvania. Stedman learns more from Josiah in a few hours than in his many years in office. He comes to the conclusion that someone like Josiah should be running the country. Not a career politician, but someone with a little old-fashioned common sense, someone who's not afraid of rolling up his sleeves and getting his hands dirty . . . someone like Josiah Stoltzfus. Using his old campaign headquarters for a base, Mark Stedman determines to introduce a new candidate to America. man of faith turn the tide of politics and become the leader of America, and what will he have to risk to do it? The next show we will be seeing is at the expanded Amish Country Theater."

After our dinner at the theater, the show will be presenting a totally different view of life in this rural area. Musicians will be performing with plenty of music, dancing, humor and even a ventriloquist.

We are taking you to view the work of a fifth-generation carver of Swiss heritage, who is continuing his family's carving legacy in the center of Ohio's beautiful Amish country. The carvings created are intricately worked in antique ivory, ebony wood and abalone pearl. He works daily in the workshop where he is creating the "History of the Ship" from 1st Dynasty Egypt, circa 3000 B.C., to the present day and, during this visit, groups generally hear the story from the mouth of this artist.

Since we are in Amish Country, we have arranged for a visit to an Amish Home with a docent telling of their way of life. While we are here, there is an antique shop, craft mall, candle shop and a leather store. We will also be visiting a store where the Amish shop for non-electric appliances and necessities for a simpler life; have you ever seen a gas-powered refrigerator? They have a wide variety of items including candles, jars for food preservation, candies, tools & garden supplies, and many hard-to-find items you may have been searching for . . . plus, a gift that we have purchased for each passenger to take home with them! We will have a number of equally fascinating stops during this two-day tour, while enjoying three hearty meals and a glass of wine or two at a popular local wine shop in Amish Country.

Our next stop will be in the shops that line the village with vendors and crafters offer their unique products and handmade items, from wood crafts, textiles, dolls, ceramics and fine art. Sol's Place in Berlin, and its associated stores, offer crafts, everything from inspirational items to sports memorabilia. Since food is most important on tours to this area, this tour features three meals, all freshly prepared from area farms. It goes without saying, in keeping with the inclusions, that an expanded breakfast awaits us at the hotel, with all kinds of bakery, eggs and meats.
