

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

HISTORIC ZOAR VILLAGE

WED JUNE 22, 2022

Departure locations, if applicable, include North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Mayfield, Beachwood, Macedonia.

In 1817 a group of about 200 Separatists who fled Germany in search of religious freedom and escaping the religious persecution in their homeland, founded what is now the historic Zoar Village. As immigration continued, what occurred in Zoar reflected the life of those who settled in this region of Ohio. For over eighty years the Separatists did well and became one of the country's most successful communal settlements. This year's package has been priced to save you $10 from last year's tour with Historic Zoar Village.

During our visit, we will be touring the museum building and enjoying the Early American Architecture and the quaint village scenery before traveling over to have a bountiful luncheon.

This afternoon we will be visiting a cheese house and doing some shopping including at Marshallville Packing for some great meats, just before returning home.
