

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

HOLIDAY LIGHTS IN PITTSBURGH

WED NOV 30, 2022

at the former Horne's Department Store and the illuminated bridges. Specific displays are subject to change from year to year.

Our staff has brought back this "Holiday Gift" to you. This tour dines in the Three-Rivers area, The Grand Concourse at Station Square, with its beautiful ambience. Situated along the river, and overlooking the colorful holiday skyline, it is a true testament of grandeur and elegant dining. With a cathedral stained-glass vaulted ceiling and marble columns, you will be quickly transported to the glamorous side of life.

In past years they continued their gingerbread-theme and had a holiday model train running through the restaurant in addition to the normal holiday decorations that are sure to "warm up any holiday dining experience".

We will be enjoying Pittsburgh's lights from several vantage points, seeing the lighted trees in the Golden Triangle, PPG Place & Wintergarden with life-sized Santas on display as well as gingerbread houses, the iconic 65-foot Christmas tree reminiscent of the one that was proudly displayed
