

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG GRAND ILLUMINATION CHRISTMAS, FRI-MON DEC 2-5, 2022

Departures, as applicable, from Westlake, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Independence, Beachwood, Macedonia.

First settled in 1732, Historic Staunton, Virginia, served for a number of years as the regional capital for the Northwest Territory. When the legislators fled Richmond and Charlottesville during the American Revolution, it became the capital of Virginia for a brief period. Originally named Beverley's Mill Place, it was renamed to honor Lady Rebecca Staunton, the wife of Royal Lieutenant Sir William Gooch. Dinner awaits us this evening. (D) Specific details awaiting final schedule from Colonial Williamsburg.

Monticello and Richmond – We will be arriving at the former residence of our third president, Thomas Jefferson. Built from his own design on land that he, at the age of 26, had inherited from his father, was designed in a neoclassical style. It includes many of the same elements that were popular in late-1800s Europe. Following our tour, we will travel through the Commonwealth of Virginia where cocktails and dinner await us today. Enjoy your stay at the Embassy Suites Williamsburg. (B, L, C)

We continue to “step back in time” at Colonial Williamsburg, experiencing the Revolutionary City dressed in timeless natural decorations or, perhaps, take in entertainment on the Market House stage. Dinner has again been included this evening and, at 5 PM, we will return to the Restored Area to see the candles as they are lit in the public buildings and homes, taking you back in time. It's a great way to celebrate the Holiday Season! (B, D)

Homeward bound – After breakfast we will be heading towards home but with stops along the way and, midday, we have reservations for our “closing luncheon”. (B, L)
