

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

NASHVILLE AGLOW, OPRYLAND HOTEL

THU-SUN DEC 8-11, 2022

Departures, as applicable, from Mayfield, Beachwood, Independence, North Olmsted, Middleburg Heights, Mansfield, Columbus, Grove City, Washington CH.

We travel leisurely southward with a lunch stop along the way. Mid-afternoon we will be greeted with a reception and then “freshening up” before a Holiday Musical Show, “White Christmas”, at a dinner playhouse in Clarksville. The next morning, we arrive at the Opryland Hotel, the largest non-casino hotel in the country with time to explore the resort’s blend of Colonial Williamsburg and Southern Plantation architecture, seeing the canal that runs through its atrium. Enjoy the Country Christmas theme at the Resort and Nashville’s tradition, its millions of dazzling Holiday Lights. Please note that we recommend booking early since the hotel cuts off additional room reservations as they fill up.

Admissions are included to ICE, the signature holiday event at the Opryland Hotel. Carved from two million pounds of ice, it is a beautiful rendering as we enter the Holiday Season. Evening finds us at the Opryland Hotel’s “Country Christmas Dinner-Show”. The scheduled entertainment at this show is yet to be announced.

Our holiday fun continues as we enjoy the Christmas decorations, the lighting displays and the holiday crafts being offered at the shops. Midday we board the General Jackson Showboat, one of the largest ever built, enjoying a luncheon and lively “Holiday Show, Riverboat-Style”. We have upgraded the tour to include the Delta Boat Ride inside the hotel. Enjoy the world-famous Grand Ole Opry for their Christmas Program at the historic Ryman Auditorium for a great Holiday Memory of this four-day tour. .
