

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

THE SOUTHERN CHARM OF CHARLESTON & SAVANNAH

MON-SAT APRIL 17-22, 2023

Departures, as applic: Parma/Cleve.West, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Macedonia.

“Southern Hospitality” is a phrase used in American English to describe the stereotype of residents of the Southern United States as particularly warm, sweet (like their tea), as they welcome visitors to their homes, or to the South in general. This tour offered just every two years includes Charlotte (NC), Charleston (SC), Savannah (GA) and Mount Airy (NC) plus eleven meals, with cities and dining that will truly show that “warm feeling” immediately as we arrive in each of them.

En route on Monday we will stop at Tamarack in Beckley, West Virginia, for our lunch stop as well as browsing the offerings to give us the “taste of West Virginia”. Glass, carvings & artwork are available for purchase, or to just enjoy, at this vast cultural center.

Charleston is the second largest city in South Carolina and originally was called Charles Towne, to honor Charles II of England, Scotland & Ireland. During mid-April we should be enjoying their average high temperatures of 76 to 77 degrees. While we are in Charleston, we’ll be learning the history, seeing buildings and homes from the Antebellum & Postbellum eras. We will also be enjoying a wonderful Southern-style dinner, a horse-drawn carriage tour of historic downtown, a visit to one of Charleston’s most exquisite Antebellum structures, the Joseph Manigault House, and a stop at Patriot’s Point for a tour on the USS Yorktown. This Naval vessel is one of 24 Essex-class aircraft carriers built during World War II and is the fourth US Navy ship to be named after the Battle of Yorktown which occurred during the American Revolutionary War.

Savannah’s history goes back to 1733 when it became the first city in the 13th, and final, American colony called “Georgia”, named after England’s King George II. The beauty of the city was never as recognized as it was in 1862, when General Sherman entered the town after having burned the city of Atlanta, as well as everything else in his path, on the “March to the Sea”. Last year’s tour sold out early so we recommend not waiting to book this year.

It is reported that he was so impressed with Savannah's beauty he could not destroy it. Two years later he sent a telegram to President Lincoln, offering the city as a "Christmas present". During our two-night stay we will have a trolley tour, fabulous meals, a haunted tour of Savannah, a Dolphin-Seeing Cruise and a visit to the Mercer Williams House Museum of "Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil" fame.

But our Southern Experience continues as we start our trip homeward as we've upgraded this inclusive tour which stops at the Old North State Winery, in Mount Airy, where we will also be having a tour with wine tasting. Our special gourmet dinner will be served at the winery's restaurant. You will need to pre-select your entree here, so when you make your reservation, pork, a seafood dish or chicken.

Our Southern Experience continues, this time in a rivertown where we've included a traditional midday meal located in the heart of historic downtown area on the border of Ohio and West Virginia. There is so much to enjoy in this trip south and back that we hope you will find it charming.
