

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

AMISH COUNTRY HERITAGE CENTER

THUR JUNE 8, 2022

Departure locations, if applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, No. Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Medina.

As you review our various tours this year, you will probably note that we have additional tours to Amish Country, each different than the other. This tour, introduced last year, has new inclusions and Der Dutchman Restaurant in Walnut Creek, in the heart of the Holmes County Amish Country . . . and at a price reduced $8 from last year.

Of special interest is our having included the admissions this morning at the Amish & Mennonite Heritage Center. We will be seeing a presentation and then touring Behalt, with its circular mural that illustrates the history of the Amish and Mennonites, from their origins to the present day. You will find out how much more there is in the Holmes County area than just shopping and great food. This is sure to give you an entirely new insight into the lives and beliefs of these hard-working folks in the largest Amish Community in the Country.

HERITAGE CENTER, BEHALT

But we really can't ignore the meal today, and plan to have our midday meal at the iconic Der Dutchman Restaurant, with its rocking chairs along a delightful country road as horse buggies clip-clop past the porch in the Berlin-Millersburg area. Afterwards we will be visiting a Cheese-Maker that is a local tradition.

We will be enjoying some time at a shopping complex in Berlin that encompasses three stores, brimming with an assortment of crafts, wooden products, handmade dolls, goose clothes, candles, ceramics, floral arrangements, and all types of arts & crafts.
