

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summa

SPRING IN BRANSON W/ QUEEN ESTHER SUN-THUR JUNE 11- 15, 2023

Departures, as applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, Parma/Cleve.West, Middleburg Hts, Mansfield, Columbus-North.

Welcome to our first Branson tour of 2023 as the theaters offer their new, and returning, shows. And, along the way, enjoy the beauty of the Ozark Mountains. The tour has been upgraded to include the performance at the Sight & Sound Theater plus eight meals!

What could get us into the mood than “California Dreamin” with your favorite Beach Boy tunes of the surf era? Enjoy these Beach Boys hits and other 60s groups in this high-energy show with beautiful costumes, singing, and dancing that you won’t want to miss.

We also have reserved seats for Branson’s Famous Baldknobbers, the show that “started it all in Branson”. It’s a combination of music and comedy that they have perfected over their 60 years.

Recognizing the dozens of groups we take each year to the Sight & Sound Theaters to see these spectacular performances, we have secured tickets for “Queen Esther” which takes place in the height of the opulent Persian Empire. It is a tale of beauty and bravery, telling how Esther’s life changed after she was taken through the palace doors, entering a new world of royalty. Follow this story of the Old Testament as it comes to life.

“Smoke on the Mountain” is a new musical comedy show with a story line that highlights the music and stories of the Sanders Family in the past and current day Ozarks. The next show, “Six”, in the Dick Clark Bandstand Theater, features the Knudsen brothers using their own vocal talents to perform classic songs from all genres. The curtains will open to reveal the six brothers' incredible and lively choreography and harmonies. This show is most unique, having been called an “orchestra of human voices”, even as traditional instruments are not being used as they perform pop music, rock n roll, and barbershop harmonies.
