

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

HISTORIC BARN MURALS & MORE

THUR JUNE 29, 2023

Departures, as applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, Middleburg Hts, No.Olmsted, Elyria.

As we travel westward in the state, you just might have noticed the number of historic barns with murals still able to be enjoyed on their sides. It's time to break away from the television and join us as we see these up close as our motor-coach and guide take us along Ohio's Historic Barn Mural Trail. While the barns may be "historic", some of the murals are more recent, having been completed by a nationally-known "Barn Artist". This artwork is representative of the area's local or national history . . . it is quite unique and most entertaining as we hear the stories associated with them.

As with most all our tours, today's inclusions will not be stopping with just the Historic Barn Murals. We will be having lunch at a local restaurant (no chain restaurants, you know). Then we will be seeing a Master Trainer demonstrating how he has trained dogs to assist police officers and military forces over the years.

In keeping with the theme of this tour, we will be visiting a horse farm to see the prize-winners who have competed at many of the shows. While the specific breed could change, depending on the schedule of the shows, we typically see Belgian Horses, learning how they are raised, trained and shown at fairs and festivals. We also plan on making a stop at the Public Safety Service Memorial today.
