

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

AMISH DOOR VILLAGE WITH SHOW & PIE DRAWING FRI JULY 7, 2023

Departures, as applic: No.Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange.

Even if you've been to Ohio's Amish Country, there is a good chance that you just may have missed the dining-shopping complex in Wilmot, Ohio. The Amish Door Village, sitting atop a rise overlooking the countryside, has a restaurant, bakery, market and a gorgeous Inn, complemented with a flowing staircase in the main lobby. The original restaurant first opened over 45 years ago with just 48-seats. Over the years, major construction projects have led to what is now Amish Door Village. Located in a quiet, relaxing setting it hosts groups, weddings, receptions and shows and will be a place you should find most inviting.

We were especially impressed with one of the bakery items our reps brought back with them after a recent visit. Although it may be a seasonal item, it does show the unique quality offered. The freshly-baked pie had twelve apples in it and weighed close to five pounds . . . not something you see very often now-a-days. Our luncheon will be at the Amish Door Restaurant, known for its delicious meats, such as broasted chicken, "real mashed potatoes", homemade bread and fresh pies. At the conclusion of this mid-day dinner, the Tour Director will be drawing the name of a lucky passenger who will be winning one of their pies to take home with them.

Afterwards, we re-board the coach for the short trip into Berlin, for our reserved seats at the Amish Country Theater, in its remarkable new 600-seat auditorium; it has been voted one of the "Top 100 Events in North America" by the American Bus Association. We will be seeing one of their Variety Shows, with lively music, a ventriloquist whom you may have seen during one of his television appearances, a "country bumpkin" known for his humor and comedy-singing performance, while accompanied by the show band.
