

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

THE COLORFUL SMOKY MOUNTAINS

MON-THUR OCT 2 - 5, 2023

Departures, as applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, No.Olmsted, Middleburg Hts, Medina, Mansfield, Grove City.

We've once again selected peak-season tour dates to best enjoy the "colors of the Fall season" in the Smoky Mountains and, again, staying in a centrally-located hotel not too far from Gatlinburg and the Smoky Mountains. And, best of all, the pricing for this new tour package has been reduced to the lowest price in years.

When we arrive in the Pigeon Forge-Gatlinburg region of Tennessee, we'll be enjoying an evening of entertainment at the Stampede Dinner & Show in the Heart of the Smokies.

The next day we will be seeing the Great Smoky Mountains National Park the best way we know, with a local guide; most of our guides grew up in this area and can they ever tell you some interesting stories about living here. Who knows, maybe this morning's touring helped us to "work up a thirst for a local favorite" by the time we arrive in Gatlinburg . . . tasting some of Tennessee's first legal moonshine (although this is not to say that it was not being brewed in the area long before that, but we are only guessing). We will have some time to shop or browse in this popular downtown area. Later today, two more shows await us today including the Hatfield & McCoy Dinner Feud Show, the musical performance of the longest-running feud in history. This evening we have reserved seats at the Country Tonite Theater.

We also have a full day to enjoy the Fall Colors, this time at Dollywood, the area's Fall Harvest Celebration and the Southern Gospel Festival . . . making for a most-enjoyable day in the Great Smoky Mountains region of Tennessee. Enjoy the shows and the ride aboard the Mountain Excursion, being pulled by a coal-fired steam engine, as it takes you on a rail journey through the foothills of the Smoky Mountains. All Aboard!!!!!!
