

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

CHERRY BLOSSOMS AT THEIR PEAK IN D.C. WED-FRI MARCH 26-28, 2025

Departures, as applic: Elyria, Parma/Cleve.West, Middleburg Hts, Independence, Beachwood/Orange, Macedonia.

The best time to see cherry blossoms at their “peak” in Washington, D.C. is most typically around the last week of March through the first week of April.

While our tours to the Nation’s Capital have remained popular during the years, this three-day tour package should be even more enjoyable, with time to view the colors of the season, the upgraded meal selections and the activities we have planned for you.

The history of these Cherry Blossoms dates back to 1912 when the city received a gift of 3,000 colorful trees from the Mayor of Tokyo; to reciprocate, the city gave him flowering Dogwood Trees. By 1935 the trees fully bloomed, eventually becoming DC’s most popular Springtime event with its spectacular pink blossoms and typically lovely Spring weather. By now, you are probably wondering what inclusions make this tour so special amidst the colors of the Cherry Blossoms.

- Great food has been a “hallmark” for our sixty years and this tour is no different. Meals include popular restaurants such as dinner in the Famous Old Town Alexandria Fish Market and, another evening, a cruise to one of the traditions our passengers have come to expect, Tony and Joes. This waterfront restaurant along the boardwalk, with its patio bar allows dining with stunning views of the Kennedy Center and Key Bridge.
- Package includes Licensed D.C. Tour Guide.
- Cruise aboard a sightseeing boat as noted above, ending in Alexandria.
- Tram service at Arlington National Cemetery with so much rich history within its hallowed grounds.
- Changing of the Guard, the Kennedy Gravesite and the Eternal Flame.
- Iwo Jima and the 911 Memorial.
