

Great Day! Scheduled Tour Summary

ALABAMA, HERE WE COME ON THE “SEVEN-B” TOUR

MON-SAT SEPT 8 -13, 2025

Departures, as applic: Beachwood/Orange, Independence, Parma/Cleve. West, Middleburg Hts, Medina, Mansfield, Grove City.

Sit back, as we travel southward through Kentucky and Tennessee, enjoying sights along the route . . . and, even more intriguing, how many places we will visit have a name that start with the letter “B”. After all, right off the cuff we can bring to mind Bluegrass, Bardstown, Bourbon, Bowling Green, BBQ, Birmingham and Bessemer.

But these seven “B’s” certainly do not limit the “alphabet of inclusions” places that been enjoyed during other tours, including Huntsville, Nashville, Florence and Tusculumbia, even though the first letter may differ from a “B”. This 2025 tour is also unique since several of the dinners are set up for you to select your entrée from the menu.

Our adventure includes “Ivy Green”, the homestead of Helen Keller, known as a symbol of courage in the face of overwhelming issues. Helen was just 19 months old when a high fever left her both deaf and blind. Over the years, her teacher, Anne Sullivan, taught her both braille, finger spelling and, eventually, how to speak. You will be hearing interesting stories of her life as we tour the homestead.

We will have a couple of hours at the Air & Space Center, seeing the latest technology, rockets and other fascinating exhibits.

We have also included a destination whose notoriety dates back to 1961, leading to the “Muscle Shoals Sound”. The town, nestled along the Tennessee River in Alabama, was recognized for some of the earlier performers who recorded here. We will be visiting the studio that contributed to the success of singers in the 1970s, including Wilson Pickett, Bob Seger, Joe Cocker and Aretha Franklin.
